THE BOARD OF HEALTH.

It is regretted that an attempt has been made to arouse prejudice by reason of the election of Dr. Isabelle to fill a vacancy in the board of health. The creation of this board is purely a matter of business. To be a member of the board gives no social standing at all to any person whatever his color may be. The object of the board is solely to preserve the health of the city. It is supposed that those physicians will be selected who have the largest practices, and who are best situated to be conversant with the sanitary condition of the city. The colored people form a large part of the population of this city. Upon their sanitary condition the general health of the city depends to a large degree.
The selection of a physician from among their number, and who is ipso facto well acquainted with their condition, is really the part of wisdom. The colored physician can, in his ordinary routine of duties, attend to matters that come under the care of the board of health, which otherwise would have to be looked after by the white members. It is desired that the sanitary condition of the city should be as perfect as possible, and if the presence of a colored physician on the board will aid the board of health there should be no objection.

We believe that those physicians who have resigned from the board will find that they have acted pre-judicially and with undue haste; that they allowed a little old-time prejudice to overcome their common sense.
No Southerner has ever yet refused to take his seat in Congress because of the presence there of a colored member. If the two races can attend to the national affairs of this country as members of Congress, it seems that the two races might be able to be represented in Paducah's board of health.

The physicians of this city have always been willing to practice in colored families. No one has ever heard of the color line being drawn when a responsible colored man wanted medical attendance. The seven thousand colored people of this city have not been compelled to rely upon the few colored doctors of this city for medical assistance. We believe that the common sense of the people of this city will approve the selection of Dr. Isabelle.

THE SPIRIT OF HUB LAW.
No better illustration of the direful results of mob law can be found than the cruel and uncalculated murder of the negro Charles Sewett at Mayfield Tuesday night. Sewett was an inoffensive negro boy coming home to spend the Christmas with his mother and yet he was met at the outskirts of Mayfield by an armed mob and shot down in his tracks like a dog. And why? for no reason except that he was a negro. The bloodthirsty mob wrought to a frenzy by the blood of one negro becomes delirious with passion and sees in every negro an enemy, a ravisher of women and a midnight murderer.
A prominent Mayfield judge, if the papers have reported him correctly, approves of the mobbing of Jim Stone; the next night the home of a suspected negro is burned down with other valuable buildings and the slight following a seventeen-year-old boy is murdered almost at his waiter's door.

Another has no reason. It listens to the mob.

but to one side of the case. It is cruel, heartless and uncalculated; it is a feeling unknown to it. A mob is not controlled by its cooler members, but values the will and the desires of its most reckless and hot headed leaders. A rumor is taken for a fact. Jim Stone accused another negro of the crime that he himself committed. That accusation was accepted as conclusive and had the accused negro been found that night he would have shared the fate of Stone. No reputable man regrets the death of Stone, the rapist. But it would have been vastly better had he died at the hand of the law.

There is not a paper in this country but what has spoken of Mayfield's disgrace. Kentucky has become famous as the abode of lynch law.
Tol gate raiders and murderers move today making a name for the old Blue Grass State that it will take years to live down.

The failure of the National Bank of Illinois and the other bank failures which it caused are not to be taken as a reason for serious alarm. The causes of the failures are simple and plain. There was bad management in the affairs of the National Bank of Illinois. The officers had promised the National Comptroller that they would rectify what they had done.
This they did not do, but resorted to so much manipulation of the company's books to hide the magnitude of their bad investments. This was one cause. The other was the weakening of all their assets caused by the strain of the long period of hard time, and business depression.

The wisdom of the national bank system of inspection is shown by the fact that this failure would have been avoided had the officers of the bank done as they agreed, over their own signatures, that they would do. It also shows that the bank examiners cannot be too careful, for even in this case the officers of the bank covered up, in some degree, their rascality.

The hurry at first caused by the failure of the Bank of Illinois has subsided. It is but one of the inevitable results of reckless investment of a bank's funds. The great majority of all bank failures are caused by bad management. The most valuable lesson of the recent period of depression is that conservatism and caution are the only safe guards in business even in flush times.

Twenty days after Fort Sumter was fired upon Spain recognized the Southern Confederacy. She did not do this for any love for the South, but on account of a deep seated hatred of the United States. From the days of the Spanish Armada, the Spaniards have hated the English speaking people, and since the first Napoleon sold Louisiana to the United States Spain has cherished a smoldering jealousy of the American Republic.

It now turns out that Spain is having a hard time in the Philippine Islands. Japan is said to be secretly aiding the rebels there. Japan is coming rapidly to the front, and the conquerors of China may yet give the Spanish Dons a pointer or two on Oriental development as illustrated in the realm of the Mikado.

The Three Friends continues to land guns and other war supplies on the Cuban coast. Her latest achievement is to place a company of American volunteers on Cuba's soil. The captain of that plucky vessel is doing all he can to secure belligerent rights for Cuba.

The two issues upon which Mc-Kinley was elected were sound money and protection to American labor and industries. The first issue was settled when the polls closed on November 3. The second issue will be settled when the Fifty-fifth congress meets.

In the American College football teams could all be controlled and sent to Cuba to tackle Weyler and his cohorts, in case of a war with Spain, the people of this country might be willing to risk hostilities.

In the recent election Chicago cast 48,555 more votes than the city of New York. It is very evident that there is urgent need of the return of Tammany Hall to aid in counting New York's vote.

The Georgia legislature has voted down a resolution instructing the railroads to carry bicycles as baggage.
But nothing better could be expected of that state since Bryan carried the state.

Certain Democrats still talk sac-crilegiously about the promised prosperity. They are, however, slightly premature. Cleveland still has two months more to serve.

QUIET AT LAST.

The Citizens of Mayfield Assert Themselves.

HELD A MASS MEETING.

Resolutions That Reflect the Right and Lawful Sentiment Unanimously Adopted.

NO FURTHER TROUBLE EXPECTED.

Peace and order have been restored at Mayfield. A mass meeting of citizens was held yesterday afternoon at the court house to take some steps towards suppressing lawlessness.

County Judge Lee called the meeting to order, after stating its object and proceeded to deprecate the deplorable condition of affairs.

Ex-State Treasurer Hale was made chairman and a communication from several colored people, some of whom had been included in the warning left by the mob Sunday night, was read as follows:

"We, the undersigned citizens of Mayfield, Ky., deplore the existing state of affairs in and about Mayfield, and pledge ourselves to use all peaceable and orderly means to prevent any further trouble, and disown any purpose on our part to molest anyone's person or property."

The usual number of speeches was made, after which the following resolutions were read and adopted with great enthusiasm:

Whereas, the spirit of lawlessness seems to be rife in this city and community, and the lives and property of citizens are being disregarded, Resolved, by the citizens of Mayfield and Graves county in public meeting assembled, that while we have no language strong enough to condemn the heinous crime committed upon a most worthy lady of our city, upon the other hand we are unconditionally opposed to all mob force.

2. Resolved, that we condemn in unmeasured terms the lawless conduct in the burning of houses on the night of the 21st inst., and the killing of the colored boy on the 22nd inst., and pledge our best efforts and our means to bring the guilty perpetrators to the bar of justice.

3. Resolved, that we condemn in the strongest terms the conduct of marauding parties who for a few nights past have taken advantage of the excited condition of the public mind to terrorize the community and disturb public peace, and we pledge ourselves to suppress this evil and call upon all good citizens to assist in the effort.

4. Resolved, that we pledge ourselves to protect all good citizens, both black and white, in the enjoyment of their rights of life.

5. Resolved, that we distinguish between the lawless element and the law-abiding citizens, of both colors and races, and we demand the oppression of the lawless, and the protection of the better element by the constituted authorities.

6. Resolved, That we recognize in the low whisky dives kept by worthless and disreputable men, both white and black, the fruitful source of all kinds of crime, and we demand their extermination, regardless of color or condition, to aid in effecting this desired end, liberty and pursuit of happiness.

7. Resolved, That the burning of the houses on the night of the 21st inst., was not a crusade upon the whisky dives by the temperance people, but was a difficult growing out of business competition between the principal participants in the burning, who were competitors in the business.

Pledges were made to support and assist the officers in maintaining the law, after which Judge Robertson introduced a resolution which was adopted by the colored people, to the effect that they wanted and asked no assistance from outsiders. They trusted to the authorities for protection, and that there was among them no spirit of vindictiveness. The city council enacted an ordinance requiring all people to keep off the streets after 10 o'clock, and on motion the Mayfield, Paducah and Louisville papers were requested to publish the proceedings of the meeting.

The statement that the death of Will Sewett was not known until yesterday morning is only a story connected by a contemporary to evade an acknowledgment that it was so.

Mayfield was patrolled last night by special officers appointed for the purpose.

THE STATEMENT DENIED

That Dr. Hunter Has Enough Votes to Nominate on the First Census
Ballot.

From Louisville Post.

A Republican leader of the legislature said this morning, as he glanced over the list of Kentucky senators:

"The statement that Dr. Hunter would get forty votes on the first census ballot is all wrong. I can name but two senators who will vote for Hunter. The statement giving Hunter forty, Holt six and Boyle six votes is ridiculous; Hunter will be nearly the last man in the race."

This morning two of the known candidates for the Republican nomination for the senate are reported as saying substantially the same thing, and that it was absolutely false that Hunter had enough votes to nominate him on the first ballot.

NOVEL PHOTOGRAPHS.

Some Fresh Wonders Performed by the Camera.

Extraordinary Combinations Produced by an Ingenious Arrangement of Mirrors—Some Curious Examples.

A French photographer has played Paris, always charmed with a novelty, by producing extraordinary photographic combinations through an ingenious arrangement of mirrors. The results he attains are novel, surprising and sometimes sensational, as, for instance, his bona fide photograph of a well-known Parisian being ridden in the street by his horse. Grotesque combinations such as this are, of course, familiar to us all, for photographers have long been able to produce very curious effects by embodying figures from several negatives in one print.

BALLROOM BICYCLING.

A Mutual Ride at Lord and Lady Hrace's House.

The all-conquering bicycle has had many triumphs, but its latest conquest is its greatest.

It has invaded the ballroom and when Lord and Lady Hraace gave their ball of the season at government house, Melbourne, some weeks ago, a unusual rule on bicycles was an important item in the programme. It was an adaptation of the musical ride of the Household brigade.

The ladies wore cycling costumes of pale blue, with dark blue ties and dark blue skirts. The dress of the men was a return to knee breeches and stockings, and in color harmonized with the dresses of the ladies.

Some days before the ball a rehearsal was held in a large suburban drill-room with peculiarly appropriate environment. For a ball had been held the night before. The floor was so highly polished that French chalk had to be used to minimize that dread of all cyclists, slithering. Both the figures and the commands indicated a blend of the cavalry ride and the quadrille. Although one lady in particular came down several times, she did it so deftly that there was barely an interruption to the movement. Another lady in a Holland costume, turning sharply to near the wall, was unseated, but re-mounted so quickly that only an expert cyclist could detect that the movement was not part of the rehearsal.

We have not yet heard how the real ride went off, the mail not having brought the account to hand.—London Mail.

A Shower of Ash.

A correspondent describes a remarkable phenomenon witnessed in Jerusalem at the beginning of July. A swarm of flying ants settled upon the city and filled the air from sunrise until nine o'clock. Victims to the Holy Sepulcher were obliged to use their handkerchiefs constantly in order to keep the insects out of their eyes and nostrils. The natives asserted that this extraordinary flight of ants was the precursor of an earthquake. Whether there was any real connection between the two phenomena or not, as a matter of fact two slight shocks of earthquake were felt in Jerusalem on the evening of the same day.—Cosmos.

RAILROAD RUMBLINGS.

Items of Interest Relative to the Railroads and Railroad People.

N. C. AND ST. L. RAILROAD.

Engineer Jas. Spence went out on the 806 pulling local this a. m.

Frank Dunklin, yardmaster at Memphis left for there this a. m. to resume his duties.

The suit brought against the company by the "coons" of the floating gang at Paris yesterday was thrown out of court.

Engineer Harry Thornberg takes his Christmas at home this time and Jim Herbig will pull the throttle on 309 in his place.

To enumerate the names of the arrivals on Conductor Alex Fulton's turn around this morning would leave but little space for anything in the paper. Suffice it to state they were numerous.

Every train brings in large bunches of evergreens for the Yule tide festivities, but we have not yet seen a "Yule log." It may be that species of timber is not indigenous to this climate.

This evening at 6:45 o'clock Mr. Lee Jett, of the I. C. blacksmith shops, will be married to Miss Emma Harp at the residence of Mrs. Alice Wilkins 223 South Eleventh street.

Fireman Harry Pixler stops off this trip and will impersonate old Santa Claus at his home tonight. Harry says there is a whole clothes line full of little stockings hung up already at his house with others yet to be added.

Harvey Garner, the "Kid Con," catches the local now owing to the unfortunate accident sustained by Conductor Ben Englert yesterday. Harvey once met with a similar mishap himself, but fortunately recovered devoid of a blemish.

Engineer Gardner Sheppard, wife and baby accompanied by Miss Mary McDonald, of Memphis, a sister of Mrs. Sheppard, arrived this morning to spend the holidays with his mother, Mrs. Lizzie Sheppard, corner Fifth and Ohio streets.

As "Milenge" lifts his maternal "wing" early tomorrow morning and quaffs the exhilarating "nog," he will not forget to wish all who pursue this column a Merry Christmas and a joyous time. With old Rip Van Winkle he will add, "May you live long and prosper."

The little folks will have a gay time at Superintendent Hill's house tonight, and for that matter some of the big ones, also, as an old-fashioned "Christmas tree" will vegetate in his spacious parlors. A beautiful specimen of Tennessee cedar came in on the morning train for the purpose, while the bunches of mistletoe, holly and box for decorative adjuncts were innumerable.

The Southern Express Company did the nice thing yesterday, as is their yearly custom. Every conductor, engineer, baggage man and porter in passenger train service was presented with a big fat, live turkey gobbler, a can of fresh oysters and a bunch of crisp white celery. One baggage clerk was heard to complain because a bottle of extra dry did not accompany the Christmas present.

Mr. Spencer Castle, the clerk, in the mechanical department, received bad news from his home in Allegon, Mich., this morning. On last Saturday his 17-year-old son Harry, who is the left half back of the local football team was painfully hurt while engaged in the games, having his left cheek bone badly shattered. Harry made the only "touch down" in the game, however.

All freight trains on the Little Rock and Memphis road are suspended to accommodate the immense excursion travel from Texas. There were six sections on yesterday morning's train, four on the evening and five on this morning's train. It was necessary to press into service some of the old time wood burner engines, and the boys say they are reminders of the days of "Auld Lang Syne." At Memphis the coaches are distributed to the various roads.

Mrs. W. A. Rooks, formerly of Jackson, Tenn., but for a year or two a resident of the city has leased the large and commodious building at the corner of Fifth and Clark streets, popularly known as the Jno E. Woodward house, and will run a strictly first-class boarding house. Mrs. Rooks has had a long experience in catering to hungry humanity and the plans to be found on her "Table d'Hote" are always unexcelled. On tomorrow evening from 7 to 11 she holds an informal opening at which many of her railroad and other friends will be present. About a year ago Mrs. Rooks' husband died leaving her with five small children to care for and to those looking for pleasant rooms, furnished and unfurnished, with or without board, we would suggest a call upon Mrs. Rooks before settling down elsewhere. The building has lately been renovated and repaired, and is equipped with all modern conveniences.
